

Cheri Quad and Bike is ready to take you to the wilds of Aruba

Very recently, Cheri Quad and Bike christened their fleet of ATV's to celebrate officially opening for business. Manager Sahirra Vishnudatt and staff showed off their ATV's, scooters and motorcycles for rental, and they all shared a glass of champagne with a new twist, a symbolic cherry, instead of the usual strawberry.

Cheri Quad and Bike is conveniently located on the main road to Oranjestad, between the Da drugstore and the Wema Home and Hardware. Sahirra explained that all their vehicles are available for rental, or customers can arrange for a full day guided tour with either of their two experienced guides, Glafard and Yadira. Both have a long years of experience as tour guides and know the island and its history inside out.

Sahirra emphasized that she is a mother, so she is very concerned with safety and hygiene. For this reason, not only is Cheri Tours very insistent that drivers and riders wear their cherry emblazoned helmets, but they also provide disposable sanitary caps to be worn under the helmet, gratis.

The daily rate for rental or a tour is $100 per quad. Sahirra explained that quads can be shared with a piggyback rider depending on the size of the renters. Children must be twelve years old or over to be a passenger and all drivers must be eighteen and over with a valid driver's license.

In addition, Cheri Quad and Bike is offering special group rates, and it was suggested that a quad party would be an innovative way for companies to treat their employees to a holiday celebration. Inquiries as to availability and group rates and reservations can be made by calling 539-4888 or 58CHERI.
